

CHEF ALEJANDRO GOCHE FREGOSO

Born in Puerto Vallarta, Jalisco, Mexico, Chef Goche has devoted his entire life to gastronomy. He began his career in the famous restaurants Le Kliff and Café des Artistes, forming the roots of his success; while at Café des Artistes, he won the gourmet Mexican cuisine contest organized by Chef and Owner Thierry Blouet.

Over time, he demonstrated his knowledge and allowed his creativity to flourish while leading the hotel kitchens of the River Café at Buenaventura Hotel. His career led him to manage the kitchens of major hotels such as El Cid in Mazatlan and Grand Velas Riviera Nayarit, where he would later return to direct Piaf restaurant; where one can indulge in classic French cuisine with a contemporary twist, made of the highest-quality local ingredients.

Tenacity and discipline have been chef Goche's goals throughout his life, and these same qualities have not only brought him success, but continue to inspire growth in his profession.
